Article XIV

Settlement of Disputes

Section 45

The UNIDO shall make provision for appropriate methods of settlement of:

- (a) Disputes arising out of contracts and disputes of a private law character to which the UNIDO is a party; and
- (b) Disputes involving an official of or expert on mission for the UNIDO who, by reason of his or her official position, enjoys immunity, if such immunity has not been waived.

Section 46

(a) Any dispute between the Government and the UNIDO concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement or of any supplementary agreement, or any question affecting the headquarters seat or the relationship between the Government and the UNIDO, which is not settled by negotiation or other agreed mode of settlement, shall be referred for final decision to a tribunal of three arbitrators: one to be chosen by the Federal Minister for Foreign Affairs of the Republic of Austria, one to be chosen by the Director-General, and the third, who shall be chairman of the tribunal, to be chosen by the first two arbitrators. Should either Party not have chosen its arbitrator within six months following the appointment by the other Party of its arbitrator or should the first two arbitrators fail to agree upon the third within six months following the appointment of the first two arbitrators, such second or third arbitrator shall be chosen by the President of the International Court of Justice at the request of the Government or of the UNIDO.

Pending the receipt of the opinion of the Court, any interim decision of the arbitral tribunal shall be observed by both Parties. Thereafter, the arbitral tribunal shall render a final decision, having regard to the opinion of the Court.

Article XV

General Provisions

Section 47

The Republic of Austria shall not incur by reason of the location of the headquarters seat within its territory any international responsibility for acts or omissions of the UNIDO or of its officials acting or abstaining from acting within the scope of their functions, other than the international responsibility which the Republic of Austria would incur as a Member of the UNIDO.

Section 48

Without prejudice to the privileges and immunities accorded by this Agreement, it is the duty of all persons enjoying such privileges and immunities to respect the laws and regulations of the Republic of Austria, and not to interfere in the internal affairs of this State.

Section 49

(a) The Director-General shall take every precaution to ensure that no abuse of a privilege or immunity conferred by this Agreement shall occur, and for this purpose shall establish such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary and expedient, for officials of the UNIDO and for such other persons as may be appropriate.

(b) Should the Government consider that an abuse of a privilege or immunity conferred by this Agreement has occurred, the Director-General shall, upon request, consult with the competent Austrian authorities to determine whether any such abuse has occurred. If such consultations fail to achieve a result satisfactory to the Director-General and to the Government, the matter shall be determined in accordance with the procedure set out in Section 46.

Section 50

This Agreement shall apply whether or not the Government maintains diplomatic relations with the State or Organization concerned and irrespective of whether the State concerned grants the same privilege or immunity to diplomatic envoys or nationals of the Republic of Austria.

Section 51

Whenever this Agreement imposes obligations on the competent Austrian authorities, the ultimate responsibility for the fulfilment of such obligations shall rest with the Government.

Section 52

The provisions of this Agreement shall be complementary to the provisions of the General Convention. Insofar as any provision of this Agreement and any provision of the General Convention relate to the same subject matter, the two provisions shall, wherever possible, be treated as complementary, so that both provisions shall be applicable and neither shall narrow the effect of the other.

Section 53

(a) This Agreement shall be construed in the light of its primary purpose of enabling the UNIDO at its headquarters seat in the Republic of Austria to fully and efficiently discharge its responsibilities and fulfil its purposes.

(b) Privileges and immunities are granted to officials and experts on mission, in the interests of the UNIDO and not for the personal benefit of the individuals themselves.

(c) The Director-General shall have the right and the duty to waive the immunity of any official in any case where, in his or her opinion, the immunity would impede the course of justice and can be waived without prejudice to the interests of the UNIDO.

Section 54

Consultations with respect to modification of this Agreement shall be entered into at the request of the Government or of the UNIDO. Any such modification shall be by mutual consent expressed in an exchange of letters or an agreement concluded by the Government and the UNIDO.

Section 55

(a) The Government and the UNIDO may enter into such supplemental agreements as may be necessary.

(b) If and to the extent that the Government shall enter into any agreement with any intergovernmental organization containing terms or conditions more favourable to that organization than similar terms or conditions of this Agreement, the Government shall extend such more favourable terms or conditions to the UNIDO, by means of a supplemental agreement.

Section 56

This Agreement shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to other offices of the UNIDO established in Austria, with the consent of the Government.

Section 57

This Agreement shall cease to be in force:

- (i) By mutual consent of the Government and the UNIDO; or
- (ii) If the headquarters seat of the UNIDO is removed from the territory of the Republic of Austria, except for such provisions as may be applicable in connection with the orderly termination of the operations of the UNIDO at its headquarters seat in the Republic of Austria and the disposal of its property therein.

Section 58

This Agreement and the annex thereto shall enter into force on the first day of the month following the date of exchange between the Government and the UNIDO of the instrument of ratification by the Government and the notification of approval by the UNIDO.

Section 59

Without prejudice to such other privileges and immunities as may have been granted by the laws of the Republic of Austria, this Agreement shall supersede the previous Headquarters Agreement of 1967 including all related instruments thereto, which were extended, for an interim period, in respect of UNIDO by Exchanges of Notes dated 20 December 1985, except for the following agreements which shall continue to be applicable to UNIDO and to which UNIDO shall be considered a party:
