Mr. President,

I would like to deliver an explanation of position on the report of the Board to the General Conference regarding item 21 on the Personal matters, including the UNIDO staff Pension Committee.

My delegation would like to put on record that the Conference act upon the recommendations of the forty seventh session of the Board to the General Conference to take action concerning candidates for election to the UNIDO Staff Pension Committee for the years 2020 and 2021 constitutes by no means and under any circumstances the recognition of the regime of Israel.

I request that my delegation's reservation on this agenda item be duly recorded in the official reports of the General Conference and also UNIDO Staff Pension Committee.

Thank you.
