Ganna Onysko works as a Development Finance Officer within the Country Partnership Division of UNIDO’s Department of Partnerships and Results Monitoring. She joined UNIDO in 2010. In her current capacity she is responsible for setting-up, promoting and institutionalizing UNIDO’s partnerships with the International Financial Institutions. She had previously worked as an officer within the UNIDO Global Environment Facility (GEF) Coordination team, where she contributed towards the expansion of UNIDO-GEF project portfolio, as well as towards ensuring UNIDO’s compliance with the relevant GEF policies and regulations.

Before joining UNIDO Ganna worked as an associate on the Climate Change team of the GEF Secretariat. Prior to that she worked as an expert for the Europe and Central Asia Private Sector and Finance Development team of the World Bank, Accion International, Resources for the Future, and World Relief.

Ms. Onysko holds an M.A. Degree in International Economics, Development and Finance from the Johns Hopkins University School of Advanced International Studies (SAIS) and a B.A. in Economics and Environmental Studies from Macalester College.
