

UNITED NATIONS INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT ORGANIZATION

JOB PROFILE

FUNCTIONAL TITLE:	INTERN
ORGANIZATIONAL UNIT:	UNIDO Regional Office in Egypt, Cairo

ORGANIZATIONAL CONTEXT

UNIDO is the specialized agency of the United Nations that promotes industrial development for poverty reduction, inclusive globalization and environmental sustainability. Its mission is to promote and accelerate inclusive and sustainable industrial development (ISID) in developing countries and economies in transition. The relevance of ISID as an integrated approach to all three pillars of sustainable development is recognized by the recently adopted 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and the related Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), which will frame United Nations and country efforts towards sustainable development in the next fifteen years. UNIDO's mandate in SDG-9, calls for the need to "Build resilient infrastructure, promote inclusive and sustainable industrialization and foster innovation". Accordingly, the Organization's programmatic focus is structured in three thematic priorities: * Creating shared prosperity * Advancing economic competitiveness * Safeguarding the environment.

UNIDO delivers its services through the following four complementary and mutually supportive core functions: (a) technical cooperation activities; (b) analytical and policy advisory services; (c) standard- setting and compliance and (d) convening and partnership role. Such core functions are carried out in Departments/Offices in its Headquarters, Regional Offices and Hubs and Country Offices.

DEPARTMENTAL CONTEXT

The field offices are responsible for representing UNIDO in their host countries and promoting the Organization as an effective partner for development, and for this purpose maintain close contact with all local stakeholders at the country and regional levels as appropriate, including government institutions and international entities. They are further responsible for identifying national development and donor funding priorities in the countries and regions of coverage, and to support the formulation and monitoring technical cooperation projects and programmes, in collaboration with the relevant technical Branches and other appropriate organizational units. The field offices are also responsible for coordinating and reporting on UNIDO activities in their countries of coverage, and providing inputs into the development of regional strategies and policies. The UNIDO field network comprises Regional Offices, Country Offices and UNIDO Desks. It is the Representative who represents UNIDO at the field.

The Regional Office in Egypt, based in Cairo, is considered as a Regional Hub covering several countries in the region. The main functions of the Regional Office include developing a strategic framework of cooperation and active partnerships between UNIDO and national and sub-national level government institutions, private sector organizations/ business associations and enterprises, non-governmental organizations, United Nations (UN) agencies, programmes and funds, the Resident Coordinator of the UN system, and representatives of other
