Functional Title:	INTERN (Partnerships & Programme Management Support)
Main Duty Station and Location:	Nairobi, Kenya
Start of Contract (EOD):	September 2018
End of Contract (COB):	February 2019
Duration:	6 months

ORGANIZATIONAL CONTEXT

UNIDO is the specialized agency of the United Nations that promotes industrial development for poverty reduction, inclusive globalization and environmental sustainability. Its mission is to promote and accelerate inclusive and sustainable industrial development (ISID) in developing countries and economies in transition. The relevance of ISID as an integrated approach to all three pillars of sustainable development is recognized by the recently adopted 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development and the related Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs), which will frame United Nations and country efforts towards sustainable development in the next fifteen years. UNIDO's mandate in SDG-9, calls for the need to "Build resilient infrastructure, promote inclusive and sustainable industrialization and foster innovation". Accordingly, the Organization's programmatic focus is structured in three thematic priorities: * Creating shared prosperity * Advancing economic competitiveness * Safeguarding the environment.

UNIDO delivers its services through the following four complementary and mutually supportive core functions: (a) technical cooperation activities; (b) analytical and policy advisory services; (c) standard-setting and compliance and (d) convening and partnership role.

DEPARTMENTAL CONTEXT

The position is based in Nairobi at the UNIDO Country Office (CO) for Kenya, headed by the UNIDO Representative (UR). The CO covers the UNIDO Programmes in Kenya and is responsible for all UNIDO representation in the Country. The CO works mainly to promote the UNIDO as an effective partner for development, and for this purpose maintain close contact with all stakeholders at the country and regional levels as appropriate, including government institutions and international entities. The Field Office is further responsible for identifying national development and donor funding priorities in the Country and to support the formulation and monitoring of technical cooperation projects and programmes, in collaboration with the relevant technical Departments and other appropriate organizational units. The field offices are also responsible for coordinating and reporting on UNIDO activities in their countries of coverage, and providing inputs into the development of regional strategies and policies.

The internship of six months (starting September 2018), is UNPAID and full-time. Interns work five days per week (35 hours) under the supervision of a staff member in the department or office to which they are assigned.
