CHERYL MILLER VAN DÿCK

Cheryl Miller Van Dÿck holds a degree in International Relations, Law and Organizations from the Georgetown School of Foreign Service and a Master of International Business Studies from the Moore School of Business at USC. Cheryl is both Belgian and American, and speaks, reads and writes English, Japanese, Dutch, French, Italian and Russian.

Cheryl Miller Van Dÿck is Director of the Digital Leadership Institute, a Brussels-based international NGO promoting inclusive digital transformation, and recognized by the UN in 2019 for its global leadership in diversity and inclusion in digital fields. In 2018, Google and the Financial Times placed Cheryl among the 100 Digital Pioneers of Europe, and in the same year, Cheryl received a coveted "GLOMO" Global Mobile Industry Leader Award for her grassroots work promoting digital equity around the world.

Cheryl has held progressive leadership roles in the automotive, telecom, cybersecurity and banking sectors in Japan, Europe, Russia and the US. She has spent the last decade advocating at the highest level and leading global digital skills and entrepreneurship campaigns that leverage disruptive technologies for the world's most under-served communities. She is regularly asked to speak and author articles—on topics of diversity and inclusion, digital equity, workforce of the future, entrepreneurship, innovation, and education—that are featured in scholarly journals and global media outlets including The Economist and Financial Times. Cheryl has presented at the UN, European Parliament, and at global industry events including Mobile World Congress, TEDx, EmTech, OSCON, CPDP and FOSDEM.

Currently, Cheryl serves as Head of EU Delegation to the G20 Women20 engagement group, Co-Chair of Italy's W20 Digital Working Group, Chair and President of the Women Entrepreneurship Platform (Europe), Women's Entrepreneurship Day Ambassador, and AWS Cloud Ambassador. Cheryl also advises European Commission projects on Ethics in AI, and diversity, equity and inclusion in RDI.
