UNITED NATIONS
INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT ORGANIZATION

CHRISTINE BJÄRKBY

Christine has broad worldwide experience in business development, which she gained at large public global companies such as Electrolux, Saab and small start-up companies and being a representative for local government and foreign affairs.

Today Christine is a board member and chairperson of several startups, scaleups, contributing by building governance and finding strategies for growth and capital. Since 2017, Christine Bjärkby has been a board member of the association of European business angels network (EBAN), representing Sweden.

Christine has previously worked with investments as a representative of Invest Sweden, Entrepreneurship Network (Enterprise Network for Startup ICT), in the board of Automotive Sweden and Connect Sverige. Christine has continuous cooperation with innovations-system as academia, science parks and local authorities, all working for the same goal – growth. Additionally, Christine is a member of Space committee in western Sweden, honored member at several Swedish BA networks such as Sciety, IDA, Keiretsu Nordic among others.