

Curriculum vitae

Ambassador Magdi A. Mofadal,

Ambassador Extraordinary and plenipotentiary of the Republic of the Sudan to the Republic of Austria and Permanent Representative to the UN and other international organizations in Vienna

July 2022 to the present: Ambassador of Sudan to the Republic of Austria and Permanent Representative to the UN Office and other international organizations in Vienna.

March 2020-to June 2022: Director, Sub-Regional Organizations Department, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Khartoum, Sudan

May 2019-December 2019: Charge' d' Affairs ad interim, Embassy of the Republic of the Sudan to the United States, Washington D.C.

August 2016-April 2019: Ambassador and Deputy Permanent Representative, Sudan Permanent Mission to the United Nations, New York.

June 2013-June 2016: Ambassador and Deputy Head of Mission, Sudan Embassy, Juba, the Republic of South Sudan

January 2012-June 2013: Minister Plenipotentiary at the American Affairs Department, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Khartoum.

July 2007- December 2011: Counselor and Minister Plenipotentiary at Sudan Embassy, Nairobi, the Republic of Kenya.

October 2004- June 2007: First Secretary, Department of American Affairs, Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Khartoum, Sudan

August 2000- September 2004: Second Secretary and Deputy Head of Mission, Sudan Embassy, Bucharest, Romania.

1995 -2000: Third Secretary in the departments of European Affairs, Consular Affairs and Protocol at the (MFA), Khartoum.

October 1995: joined the Ministry of Foreign Affairs as a third secretary.

1994 – 1995: Assistant Financial collector, Ministry of Finance, Blue Nile State, El-Damazeen, Sudan.

December 1994: graduated from the University of Khartoum, with a Bachelor of Science in Political Science

17.02.1969: Born in Shereik, Sudan

Ambassador Magdi A. Mofadal is married and graced with a son.

He speaks Arabic and English.